STORY

OUR STORY

“At Phagans School of Hair Design, our goal is to educate students to the highest standards by providing them with the knowledge and skills to not only pass the state board exam but to become self-sufficient working professionals in the field of cosmetology.”

Over 70 years ago, Wilma Lee Phagans Harrington revolutionized the beauty industry with the idea that quality education is crucial for career success.

We carry on her tradition at our school by providing students with a solid foundational education covering the basics of beauty before moving into more specialized skills. We pride ourselves and our experienced instructors in fostering a positive environment where students can build confidence and graduate ready to pass their state board exam.

WHY CHOOSE

Phagans?

At Phagans School of Hair Design, we have a strong sense of pride for the beauty industry and the people in it. This is a people-based industry, and caring for others starts in school. From the friends you'll make, to your mentors that you will look up to, it is people that make the beauty industry as great as it is. We employ passionate instructors with years of experience both in and owning salons and further years of teaching.

Our instructors hold our students to a high standard, so they can graduate with the confidence they need to pursue successful careers in the beauty industry.

We offer a unique perspective at Phagans School of Hair Design. As the beauty industry changes and evolves, so does our curriculum. Trust us, this isn't like high school where we reuse the same textbooks every year! As industry best practices develop, so do we. We want to prepare our students to be flexible and open-minded, which will help them in their future careers in salons and beyond.

As we are not a product-based school, our students can also have the opportunity to learn and master products of all brands. Every salon is different, with its own set of products they favor, and we believe our students deserve to learn with the products of their choosing.
